Community School Education Coordinator

COMPASS Youth Collaborative Inc., is a not-for-profit child and youth services organization whose purpose is to raise the expectations of youth, inspire the lives of families and build peace within the community. In partnership with school officials, parents, the community and other organizations, COMPASS endeavors to equip youth with the skills and attitude necessary for success in school and in life.

COMPASS is looking for an energetic and dynamic individual to fill a part-time (15 hrs. per week) Community School Education Coordinator's position. The purpose of this position is to plan, implement, coordinate and manage the after-school educational curricula. General Job responsibilities include but are not limited to: recruiting certified teachers; align school day curricula with the after-school program curricula; train staff on curricula; and act as liaison between COMPASS staff and school personnel.

Minimal Requirements include a Bachelor's degree in Education; valid state of Connecticut teacher's certification; experience working with urban youth; experience working with Public School Systems; knowledge of community school strategies and principles; knowledge of resources within the Hartford community; strong written and oral communication skills; and strong organizational skills. Bilingual candidates are strongly encouraged to apply. COMPASS is an EOE.
